SUIT FOR DECLARATION CUM PERPETUAL AND MANDATORY INJUNCTION

SUMMARY JUDGEMENT:
30.01.2023

1. Brief facts of the case in hand are that the plaintiff, Muhammad Ibrahim, has brought the instant suit for declaration cum perpetual and mandatory injunction against the defendants, referred hereinabove, seeking declaration therein that his correct date of birth is 30.03.2007 according to his school record, while it has been wrongly mentioned as 01.01.2021 by the defendants in their record with respect to the plaintiff. That the defendants were repeatedly asked to correct the date of birth of plaintiff but they refused, hence, the instant suit.

plaintiff in his cross examination. Hence, in these circumstances, the said documents are admissible and reliance is placed on it and are sufficient to decide the fate of the case and no further evidence is required to be produced by the parties. So, the available record clearly establishes the claim of the plaintiff.

6. Learned counsel for plaintiff and representative for defendants heard and record gone through.

7. Record reveals that plaintiff through instant suit is seeking correction of his date of birth to the effect that his correct date of birth is 30.03.2007 according to his school record, while it has been wrongly mentioned as 01.01.2021 by the defendants in their record with respect to the plaintiff. The plaintiff was directed to produce Admission & Withdrawal Register which he accordingly produced through the relevant Record Keeper. The entries in Admission & Withdrawal Register of the plaintiff reveals that the correct date of birth of the plaintiff is 30.03.2007. The above-mentioned document clearly establishes the stance of plaintiff and correctly bear his date of birth as 30.03.2007. Furthermore, there is no counter document available with the defendants to rebut the document produced by the plaintiff in support of his stance. Hence, in these circumstances, the said document is admissible and reliance is placed on it and is sufficient to decide the fate of the case and no further evidence is required to be produced by the parties.

2. Defendants were summoned, who appeared through their representative namely Mr. Irfan Hussain, who submitted written statement.
3. During the scheduling conference within the meaning of order IX-A of CPC, it was revealed that the matter involved in the instant case is very petty in nature, which can be decided through summary judgement as per relevant record. To this effect notice was given to the parties that why not the case in hand be decided on the basis of available record without recording lengthy evidence, as the primary aim and objective of Amended Management Rules in CPC is, "to enable the court to-
 - a. Deal with the cases justly and fairly;
 - b. Encourage parties to alternate dispute resolution procedure if it considers appropriate;
 - c. Save expense and time both of courts and litigants; and
 - d. Enforce compliance with provisions of this Code."
4. The relevant school's recordkeeper was summoned and the one Abbas Sharafat, Waqas Knowledge Academy, Shaho Khel, District Hangu appeared as CW-01, who produced Admission & Withdrawal Register which is Ex. CW-1/1 and according to the aforementioned Exhibit, the correct date of birth of the plaintiff is 30.03.2007. His CNIC is Ex. CW 1/2:
5. Representative of NADRA appeared as DW-01 who produced Exhibited family tree, processing form and acknowledgement on behalf of his mother as a second document which are Ex.DW1/1 to Ex.DW1/3. He admitted the stance of the
