Control of Narcotic Substances Act, 2019
Police Station: Kalaya

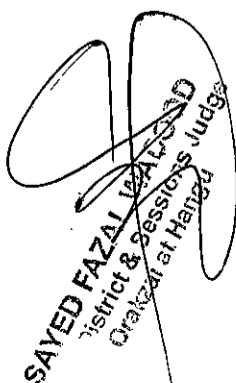

JUDGEMENT
11.03.2023

The above-named accused is charged for the offence u/s 9 (d)

KP CNSA vide FIR no. 150, dated 24.12.2021 of Police Station Kalaya.

(2). As per contents of FIR, the complainant Muhammad Shafiq SHO along with other police officials recovered 5000 grams of chars from possession of the accused. Consequently, the captioned FIR was registered that given birth to the subject case.

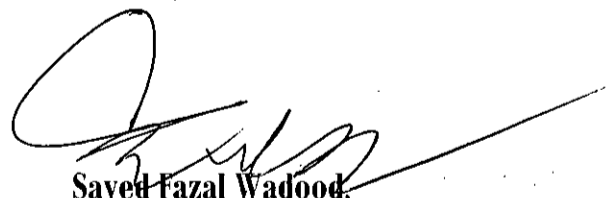

(3). After completion of investigation, complete challan was put in court. The accused was summoned who accordingly appeared before the Court. Today, accused pleaded guilty for the reasons that he is a poor person and that being first offenders, lenient view may be taken against him. He produced his minor daughter before the Court and requested that he cannot afford the expenses of litigation and his financial status is too weak. He submitted application which is placed on file. In view of the application of accused, prosecution did not want to produce the evidence. Statement of the accused recorded u/s 342 of the Code of Criminal Procedure 1898.

(5). Perusal of case file shows that the accused was having 5000 grams of chars in his possession; therefore, he is held guilty of the offence punishable u/s 9 (d) of KP CNSA 2019. Hence, he is convicted of the offence. But as the accused is first offenders and there is no record of his previous involvement in such like offences; therefore, he must have a chance of repentance. Keeping in view the aforementioned circumstances and the clean breast admission of the guilt by the accused, producing his minor daughter, poor financial status and recovery of only 5000 grams of chars, by taking a lenient view, instead of sentencing him at once, he is placed on probation for a period of three years subject to the executing of bonds in the sum of Rs. 50,000/- with two sureties to the effect that the accused would commit no offence and to keep the peace and be of good behavior during the period of bond and to appear and receive the sentence, if called upon to do so during that period to the satisfaction of Probation Officer concerned. Case property i.e., chars be destroyed in accordance with law after the period provided for appeal/revision. File of this Court be consigned to District Record Room Orakzai after necessary completion and compilation within span allowed for.
