Section 506 PPC carries punishment in first part for imprisonment of two years while in second part it carries punishment of imprisonment for 07 years which does not fall within the prohibitory clause of section 497 Cr.P.C and in such like cases grant of bail is a rule while refusal is an exception. Moreover there is nothing on the record that the accused/petitioner is hardened, desperate criminal or previously convicted.

The investigation in the instant case is complete and no better purpose will be served if the accused/petitioner is kept in jail in the existence of above mentioned circumstances.

Consequently, the bail petition in hand is allowed. Accused/petitioners is ordered to be released on bail subject to furnishing of bail bonds to the tune of Rs: 50000/- with two local, reliable and resourceful sureties each in the like amount to the satisfaction of this court. Record be sent back forthwith to the concern police station. File be consigned to record room after necessary completion.
