for causing injuries to him and his cousin Sajid Khan by means of firearm. During the stage of pre-arrest bail, the complainant party has submitted a compromise before the Court of ASJ-II, Orakzai wherein they deposed that the matter between them have been patched up and they have forgiven the accused in the name of Almighty Allah, hence, they raised no objection either on the acceptance of the bail petition of accused or upon their acquittal during the trial. The attested copies of the compromise produced today before the present Court are Ex. P1 consist of four pages, which compromise was stated still intact and on the basis of same, complainant requested for the disposal of the case.

(3). Since, the sections of law levelled against the accused facing trial are compoundable and the attested copies of the compromise as well as the bail order produced and placed on file today reveals that a genuine compromise has been affected between the parties which is still intact and nothing is outstanding against them. Therefore, the above-named accused facing trial on the basis of said compromise stand acquitted from the charges levelled against him through FIR in question. Bail bonds of the accused stand cancelled and sureties of the accused stand discharged from the liability of bail bonds. Case property, if any, be disposed of in accordance with law but after period provided for appeal/revision.

(4). Case file be consigned to Sessions Record Rom after necessary completion and compilation.
