Order-12
16/01/2021

Petitioner present through counsel Shaheen Muhammad Advocate.

Respondent present through counsel.

Counsel for the petitioner submitted copy of authority letter.

My this order is aimed at disposal of petition for setting aside ex-parte decree dated: 29-11-2019 filed by the Chairman Board of BISE, Kohat (petitioner).

Petitioner filed instant petition for setting aside ex-parte decree dated: 29.11.2019 in case titled Muhammad Naseem vs Chairman BISE Kohat etc bearing No. 201/1 of year, 2019 by contending therein, that ex-parte decree was passed in absence and without the knowledge of petitioner as petitioner was not served with the notice in the said case. That valuable rights of petitioners are attached in the case, hence, the ex-parte decree against petitioner/defendant No.1 be set aside and opportunity be provided to petitioner to defend his rights.

Respondent/plaintiff was summoned, who appeared and contested the petition by filing his written reply, wherein, he objected the application on various grounds.

Learned counsel for the parties heard and record gone through.

Perusal of the record reveals that plaintiff/respondent brought a suit for declaration, permanent and mandatory injunction to the effect that his correct date of birth is 01.01.1997 but defendant No.1 has wrongly mentioned the same as 25.09.1999 in his education record, hence, the record is liable to be corrected. Defendants were summoned, on which defendant No.2 and 3 appeared through representative while defendant No.1/petitioner was proceeded ex-parte on 12.11.2020. Thereafter, suit of plaintiff was decreed vide summary judgement dated: 29.11.2019.

Record reflects that petitioner/defendant No.1 was neither served personally nor through publication in daily newspaper. Record also shows that relief was sought against the petitioner/defendant No.1 and decree has been passed against him without providing him opportunity of hearing. It is well settled principle of law that no one should be condemned. The superior courts in plethora of judgements have held that cases be decided on merit and reasonable opportunity be provided to the parties to defend their rights.

In view of above discussion, the request of petitioner/defendant No.1 seems genuine, hence, by
