APP for the state present. Accused on bail present.

The accused facing trial submitted, an application for plead guilty in case FIR no. 24 Dated: 09.06.2020 U/S 380 PPC, on the ground that he is the son of the complainant and that he is a school going kid. Statement of accused recorded to which he pleaded his guilt and did not claim trial. Show-Cause notice was served upon the accused, wherein he placed himself at the mercy of the court.

The allegations levelled against the accused are that he stole rupees 4 lac from the pillow of the complainant/Father.

The prosecution has not recorded its evidence till date.

As per available record on file and clear admission, the accused being juvenile and first offender is repentant of his guilt, his age is the age of career building and grooming to do positive contribution towards the society. Therefore, the accused is convicted for 03 years simple imprisonment in sec. 380 PPC with fine of Rs.500/-, in default of payment of which he shall further undergo simple imprisonment for 10 days.

Since the accused is first offender and there is nothing on file to reflect upon his character. Therefore, instead of sentencing him at once, the lenient view is taken and is deemed just and proper to require him to be under supervision of District Probation Officer u/s 5 of the probation of offender's ordinance 1960 for a period of sentence awarded to him subject to furnishing bail bonds to the tune of Rs. 80,000/- with two local and reliable sureties each in the like amount to the satisfaction of Probation Officer concerned for keeping peace and good behavior and also not repeating of the same offence for said period. The Probation Officer shall deal with the convict in accordance with law and shall keep strict supervision of the movements and behavior of the convict for the said period.

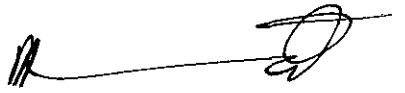

In case of default or violation, the accused shall be committed to undergo simple imprisonment for a period of 03 years. He shall ensure good behavior during the tenure of the probation of the convict.
