He put himself at the mercy of the court. Show-Cause notice was served upon the accused, wherein he placed himself at the mercy of the court.

The allegations levelled against the accused are that he was carrying the rifle (Dungar bore) alongwith 24 rounds of the same bore. Hence, the FIR.

The prosecution has not recorded its entire evidence till date.

As per available record on file and clear admission, the accused being first offender is repentant of his guilt. Therefore, the accused is convicted for 01 years simple imprisonment in sec. 15AA, KPK Arms Act, 2013.

Since the accused is first offender and there is nothing on file to reflect upon his character. Therefore, instead of sentencing him at once, the lenient view is taken and is deemed just and proper to require him to be under supervision of District Probation Officer u/s 5 of the probation of offender's ordinance 1960 for a period of sentence awarded to him subject to furnishing bail bonds to the tune of Rs. 50,000/- with two local and reliable sureties each in the like amount to the satisfaction of Probation Officer concerned for keeping peace and good behavior and also not repeating of the same offence for said period.
