

Order-29
15/02/2021

Plaintiff present in person.

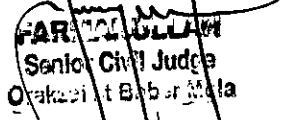

Defendant No.2 also present in person.

Both the parties stated before the court that they have patched up the matter through Jirga and as result of which disputed shop along with the store has been given to the plaintiff while to defendant No.2, the share has been given in the house. That dispute between the parties regarding the wall has been also settled through Jirga and as per decision of Jirga defendant No.2 will give Rs. 20,000/- to the plaintiff and will also hand over the remaining material to the plaintiff. Both the parties requested to dispose of the case in the light of decision of the Jirga. To this effect joint statement of plaintiff and defendant No.2 recorded before the court while the copy of decision of Jirga is placed as Ex.PB and CNICs of the parties as Ex.PA and Ex.PC (the original decision of Jirga returned after perusal).

So, case in hand is disposed of in the light of joint statement of parties and compromise effected through Jirga. No order as to cost.

File be consigned to record room after completion and compilation.
