Order No 07	06.10.2023	Parties along with their respective counsel present. Counsel for the defendants submitted an application for dismissal of the suit on the ground that plaintiff/respondent has already made correction in his date of birth after getting decree from the district magistrate on 10.04.2017 and the said decree is intact. That the respondent has now filed the instant suit for once again making correction in his date of birth. Counsel for the petitioner/respondent argued that the matter regarding the date of birth of the plaintiff has already been decided by the competent court and now agitating the same at a later stage through the instant suit amounts to res-judicata. Arguments heard. Available record perused which shows that previously vide judgment and decree dated: 10.04.2017, the matter relating to correction of date of birth has already been decided by the competent court and now agitating the same through the instant suit amounts to res-judicata. I therefore, dismiss the instant suit U/S 11 of the CPC. Case file be consigned to the record room after its necessary completion and compilation. Announced 06.10.2023  (Bakht Zada) Senior Civil Judge, Orakzai at Baber Mela.
