Contin. order		came there, criminally intimidated and stopped the mining operations. Hence, the present FIR. Perusal of the case file shows that though, the accused/petitioner is directly nominated in the instant FIR; however, all the offences except offence u/s 506 PPC are bailable in nature. Even with respect to offence u/s 506 PPC, the facts of the case attract the second part of section 506 PPC which is also bailable. In these circumstances, committal of the accused/petitioner to police custody for enabling him to be released on post-arrest bail, would serve no useful purpose of the prosecution except the probability of unjustified harassment at the hands of police. Therefore, in the light of above, the bail petition in hand stands accepted and ad-interim pre-arrest bail earlier granted to the accused/petitioner stands confirmed on the strength of existing bail bonds.
