Though, accused is directly charged in the FIR but the offences, for which accused is charged, do not come within the prohibitory clause of section 497 Cr.P.C, in such like cases the grant of bail is a rule while its refusal is an exception but there exist no exceptional circumstances in the present case. In addition to, the complainant stated at the bar that he has effected compromise with the accused party and he has got no objection if bail is granted to them. He also recorded his statement in this respect.

For the above reasons, the accused are entitled to the concession of bail at this stage, hence, application in hand is accepted and they be released on bail, subject to furnishing of bail bonds to the tune of Rs. 50,000/- by each one of the accused with two local and reliable sureties each in the like amount to the satisfaction of this court.

Copy of this order be placed on police record and the instant File be consigned to record room while record be sent back to the quarter concerned.
