  - a. Deal with the cases justly and fairly;
  - b. Encourage parties to alternate dispute resolution procedure if it considers appropriate;
  - c. Save expense and time both of courts and litigants; and
  - d. Enforce compliance with provisions of this Code."

Leaving Certificate, while it has been wrongly mentioned as 01.01.1991 in his CNIC by the defendants, which is wrong, ineffective upon the rights of the plaintiff and liable to correction. Plaintiff in support of his contention produced the copy of his School Leaving Certificate wherein the date of birth of the plaintiff has been mentioned as 01.01.1996, So, the School leaving Certificate and Admission and Withdrawal register of school, of the plaintiff clearly negate the incorporation of his date of birth as 01.01.1991 in his CNIC. Further, there is no countered document available with the defendants to rebut the documents produced by the plaintiff in support of his stance, which establishes that the date of birth of the plaintiff has wrongly been mentioned in his CNIC that is against the facts and circumstances. The available record is sufficient to decide the fate of the case and no further evidence is required to be produced by the parties. Sie Consequently, upon what has been discussed above and the jurisdiction vested in this court under order IX-A and XV-A of CPC, suit of the plaintiff succeeds and is hereby decreed as prayed for. Defendants are directed to correct the date of birth of plaintiff as 01.01.1996 in their record and in the CNIC of the plaintiff.

6. Parties are left to bear their own costs.
