Although the offences are not compoundable, however, in plethora of judgments of the superior courts, it is held that the factum of compromise could be considered as a ground for grant of bail in the interest of justice and equity even in non-compoundable offences. When complainant is not willing to prosecute the accused any further, the court would not compel the parties to do so as "you can take the horse till the water but you cannot make him drink". As on merits, the alleged occurrence took place on 23.10.2023 and F.I.R was registered on 01.11.2023. There is unexplained delay of about 09 days in lodging of F.I.R. There is no eye-witness to the occurrence. Source of information regarding involvement of accused/petitioner in the commission of the offence has not been disclosed. There is no criminal history of accused/petitioner as per available record. Moreso, accused/petitioner has not confessed his guilt before the court. The offences do not fall within the ambit of prohibitory clause of section 497 Cr.PC. Investigation has already been completed and accused/petitioner is no more required to the local police for further investigation and no useful purpose would be served by keeping the accused/petitioner behind the bar.

Resultantly, application in hand is allowed. Petitioner be released on bail subject to furnishing bail bonds in the sum of Rs. 50,000/- with two reliable sureties each in the like amount to the satisfaction of this court. Copy of this order be placed on police as well as judicial record. Record be sent back to the quarter concerned forthwith, while file of this court be consigned to record room after necessary completion and compilation.
