Order No.9	01.02.2022	Accused Dast Ali Jan on bail; Syed Amir Shah DyPP for state are in attendance. The case file is fixed for prosecution evidence but the accused produced computerized valid license of pistol recovered from accused which is the base of present case. The license was perused which is valid and genuine document permitting the accused to be the holder of weapon as owner. In light of which, notice under section 265-K is being issued to the prosecution. Learned DyPP for the State argued that there is no proof of the matter that the accused has produced this license to the police at the time of recovery of weapon. The accused was therefore rightly charged under section 15 of the KP Arms Act, 2013. He added that let the evidence of the prosecution may be procured so that the matter may further be clarified with reference to commission of offence. The accused stated at the bar that he is qualified person having degree of Master in Islamiyat and working abroad in UAE. He was having license at the time of recovery of weapon but the police has ignored this fact. The license bearing No. 1-1-0015640-Peshawar pertaining to 9MM Pistol with weapon No. TFM-20671 has been issued to accused Dast Ali Jan CNIC No. 14101-0811260-7 on 15-02-2017 which is valid till 15-02-2022.
