Arguments heard and file perused.

After hearing of arguments and perusal of the record, I am of the opinion that the accused is directly charged in the FIR but no recovery has been effected from the accused till date which is making the case of the present accused one of further inquiry. Also, the offence, for which the accused is charged, does not come within the prohibitory clause of section 497 Cr.P.C, in such like cases the grant of bail is a rule while its refusal is an exception but there exist no exceptional circumstances in the present case. In addition to, accused is first offender and has got no criminal history at his credit.

For the above reasons, the accused is entitled to the concession of bail at this stage, hence, application in hand is accepted subject to furnishing of bail bonds to the tune of Rs. 80,000/- by the accused with two local and reliable sureties each in the like amount to the satisfaction of this court.

Copy of this order be placed on police record and the instant file be consigned to record room while record be sent back to the quarter concerned.
