Presence as before.

The counsel for the plaintiffs filed a second application but this time it is simply for withdrawal of the suit. He also argued the earlier application u/o 23-R-01 CPC for withdrawal of the instant suit with permission to file a fresh suit by reason of some formal defect and the other application for simply withdrawal of the instant suit.

Arguments heard and record perused.

I would like to discuss both the applications. The instant suit was filed by the plaintiffs for declaration-cum-perpetual and mandatory injunction to the effect that the property in which the defendants are going to extend the boundary wall of the GPS Mandra Khel is jointly owned by the parties, so, they be restrained not to extend the boundary wall towards this property. They filed an application for the grant of temporary injunction which was dismissed by this court vide Order no. 13, Dated: 10.03.2021. They filed an appeal against the said order which was dismissed by the Worthy D&SJ, Orakzai vide Order Dated: 31.03.2021. In the meanwhile, the father of the plaintiff no. 02 in the previous suit and the plaintiff no. 01 in the previous suit and 02 other persons filed another Suit no. 56/1, titled as "Malak Bahadur Khan etc Vs Zyarat Gul etc" on 20.03.2021 and got status quo on the said construction. But this fact was kept secret and not disclosed to the court that status quo application on the said construction has already been dismissed by this court. Now firstly, there is no formal defect in the present suit which will effect the merits of the case, secondly, if the plaintiffs are allowed to withdraw the suit with or without permission to file a fresh one would be a support in furtherance of their ulterior motive to withdraw the suit in which the application for the grant of temporary injunction has been dismissed and keep pending the fresh suit in which status quo has been granted which they would keep linger on through different and common tactics used in courts. Thus, in the light of the aforesaid findings, both the applications of the plaintiffs are hereby dismissed being non-maintainable with costs.

File is to come up for further proceedings on 14-10-21

		constitute formal defects and these can be cured by submission of application for amendment of the plaint, he conceded the point; however, submitted that a similar suit bearing no. 156/1 of 20.03.2021 titled as "Malak Bahadar etc. VS Ziarat Gul etc." is pending between the same parties regarding the same subject matter before the court of learned Civil Judge-I, Orakzai; therefore, the appellants/plaintiffs do not want to proceed further with the present suit before the court and want to continue the subsequent suit no. 156/1. In this respect, he also submitted a separate application for withdrawal of the suit before the trial court without seeking permission to file a fresh suit. Hence, keeping in view the aforementioned situation coupled with the application of counsel for the appellants/plaintiffs, there is no need to issue a notice to the respondents/defendants; therefore, on acceptance of the instant appeal to the extent of withdrawal of the suit, the impugned order dated 16.09.2021 of the learned trial court is set aside. The suit of the appellants/plaintiffs is dismissed as withdrawn with no order as to cost! File of this court be consigned to record room. Copy of this order be sent to learned Civil Judge-I, Orakzai for compliance. Announced: 02.10.2021 (SHAUKAT AHMAD KHAN) District Judge, Orakzai at Baber Mela
