SUIT FOR DECLARATION

SUMMARY JUDGEMENT:

20.10.2021

1. Brief facts of the case in hand are that the plaintiff, Soorat Bibi, has brought the instant suit for declaration against the defendants, referred hereinabove, seeking declaration therein that her correct date of birth is 1936 while it has been wrongly mentioned as 01.01.1950 in her CNIC by the defendants, which is wrong, ineffective upon the rights of the plaintiff and liable to correction because the difference in the dates of birth of 04 children of the plaintiff and that of the plaintiff is 05 to 17 years in which that of her elder daughter namely Mst: Gul Pir Jana w/o Rehman Gul bearing CNIC No. 21601-1710584-8 is 01.01.1955, i.e only 05 years and the same is the case with other children, thus, there exists an unnatural gap between the plaintiff and her children. That the same is causing difficulties for the plaintiff as the defendants are not issuing her the CNIC. That the defendants were repeatedly asked to correct the date of birth of plaintiff but they refused, hence, the instant suit.

2. Defendants were summoned, who appeared through their representative namely Syed Farhat Abbas, who submitted written statement.
3. During the scheduling conference within the meaning of order IX-A of CPC, it was revealed that the matter involved in the instant case is very petty in nature, which can be decided through summary judgement as per relevant record. To this effect notice was given to the parties that why not the case in hand be decided on the basis of available record without recording lengthy evidence, as the primary aim and objective of Amended Management Rules in CPC is, "to enable the court to-

- a. Deal with the cases justly and fairly;
- b. Encourage parties to alternate dispute resolution procedure if it considers appropriate;
- c. Save expense and time both of courts and litigants; and
- d. Enforce compliance with provisions of this Code."

Learned counsel for plaintiff and representative for defendants heard and record gone through.

4. Record reveals that plaintiff through instant suit is seeking correction of her date of birth to the effect that her correct date of birth is 1936 while it has been wrongly mentioned as 01.01.1950 in her CNIC by the defendants, which is wrong, ineffective upon the rights of the plaintiff and liable to correction. Plaintiff in support of her contention produced copies of CNICs of her children and the family tree of the plaintiff was produced by the representative of the defendants, wherein, there is an un-natural gap of 05,12, 13, 17 years between the plaintiff and her children. The said documents clearly negate the incorporation of her date of birth as 01.01.1950 in her CNIC. Further, there is no countered document available with the defendants to rebut the documents produced by the plaintiff in support of her contention. So, the available record clearly establishes the claim of the plaintiff.

6. Parties are left to bear their own costs.
