1898. Charge was framed against him to which he pleaded not guilty and claimed trial.

(4). The prosecution was directed to produce evidence. Today the case was fixed for evidence of the prosecution; however, the accused submitted application for disposal of his case on the basis of plead guilty for the reasons that he is a poor person, and that being first offender, lenient view may be taken against him. Application is placed on file. In view of the application of accused, prosecution did not want to produce the evidence. Statement of the accused is recorded u/s 342 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898.

(5). Arguments heard and record perused. Perusal of case file shows that though the accused has pleaded not guilty to the charge already framed against him; however, he has confessed his guilt vide his application submitted today. The accused was having 3300 grams of chars in his possession; therefore, he is held guilty of the offence punishable u/s 9 (d) of KP CNSA. Hence, he is convicted of the offence. But as the accused is first offender and there is no record of his previous involvement in such like offences. Besides the accused is a poor person and having extreme old age; therefore, he must have a chance of repentance and reformation. Keeping in view the aforementioned circumstances and the clean breast admission of the guilt of the accused, by taking a lenient view, instead of sentencing him at once, he is placed on probation for a period of two years subject to the executing of bonds in the sum of Rs. 80,000/- with two sureties to the effect that the accused would commit no offence and to keep the peace and be of good behavior
