3. Arguments heard and record perused.

Perusal of the case file shows that the accused/petitioner is directly charged and the offence carries capital punishment. Moreover, the circumstantial evidence in the form of recoveries made from the spot and the recovery of the weapon of offence from possession of the accused connect him with the commission of offence. Furthermore, the occurrence has taken place inside the house of accused/petitioner but neither any male legal heir of deceased has made any report of the matter nor any explanation regarding unnatural death of both the deceased has furnished by the inmates of the house.

4. Hence, in view of what is discussed above, it is held that sufficient material is available on file which reasonably connect the accused/petitioner with the commission of offence; therefore, he is not entitled to the concession of bail at this stage. The instant post-arrest bail application is thus turned down. Copy of this order placed on judicial/police file. Consign.
