RE:
Senior Civil Judge/JM
Orakzai at Baber Mela

Though, accused are directly charged in the FIR but the offences, for which the accused are charged do not fall within the prohibitory clause provided by the section 497 Cr.PC and bail in such cases is a rule and its refusal is an exception but there exist no exceptional circumstances in the present case. Further, the complainant has entered into a compromise with the accused party. In addition to, accused are first offenders and have got no criminal history at their credit.

For the above reason, the accused are entitled to the concession of bail at this stage, hence, application in hand is accepted subject to furnishing of bail bonds to the tune of Rs. 50,000/- with two local and reliable sureties each in the like amount to the satisfaction of this court.

Copy of this order be placed on police record and the instant file be consigned to record room.
