

Case Title: Syed Muhammad VS Izat Muhammad

Presence as before.

The petition in hand has been fixed for arguments since long but both the counsel for the parties sought repeated adjournments on flimsy grounds/pretexts on so many dates and kept the same lingering on. Thus, the undersigned by itself perused the available record, which revealed that the whole petition of the petitioner turns around cultivation of the suit property in violation of the court order but as per the order no. 13, dated: 01.07.2020, whereby the temporary injunction application has been decided, the defendants are enjoined only to the extent of further alienation and construction with no mention of cultivation over the suit property. Thus, in these circumstances, the application being filed on the sole ground of the cultivation of the suit property by the defendants is not maintainable, hence, dismissed with costs.

File be consigned to record room after its necessary completion and compilation.
