SUIT FOR DECLARATION & PERMANENT INJUNCTION

=====

SUMMARY JUDGEMENT

12.09.2022

Plaintiff through father along with counsel present.

Representative of defendants also present. He stated that he has got no objection on the summary disposal of the case. Arguments heard and record perused.

Brief facts in the backdrop are that plaintiff through father has filed the instant suit for declaration cum-permanent injunction to the effect that, as per Secondary School Certificate, his true and correct date of birth is 20.03.2006, however, defendants have incorrectly entered the same as 15.08.2002 which is wrong, illegal and ineffective upon the rights of plaintiff and liable to be rectified. That defendants were asked time and again to rectify date of birth of plaintiff but in vain hence, the present suit.

With due process of law and procedure, the defendants were summoned, they appeared through representative. Authority letter was submitted. Written statement was also filed.

Plaintiff has placed reliance on Secondary School Certificate. Per school record (SSC), date of birth of plaintiff is recorded as 20.03.2006. Representative of defendants stated that date of birth of plaintiff may be modified as per SSC per NADRA SOPs. Copy of SSC of plaintiff is placed on file. There is no need of recording evidence of the parties. Defendants are directed to rectify date of birth of plaintiff as 20.03.2006 accordingly. Suit of plaintiff is decreed as prayed for. No order as to cost. This decree shall not affect rights of others interested, if any. This decree shall not affect service record of plaintiff, if any. Defendant may verify Secondary School Certificate of plaintiff from authorities concerned, if deemed necessary.

File be consigned to record room after its necessary completion and compilation.
