were provided to the accused in line with section 265-C CrPC. Today, the case was fixed for framing of charge; however, the accused submitted application for disposal of his case on the basis of plead guilty, for the reasons that he is a poor person besides he is of young age, cannot afford the expenses of litigation, and that being first offender, lenient view may be taken against him. Application is placed on file. In view of the application of accused, prosecution did not want to produce the evidence. Statement of the accused recorded u/s 342 Cr.P.C.

- (4). Arguments heard and record perused.
- (5). Perusal of case file shows that the accused was having 900 grams of chars in his possession; therefore, he is held guilty of the offence punishable u/s 9 (c) of the Khyber Pakhtunkhwa CNSA. Hence, he is convicted of the offence. But as the accused is first offender and there is no record of his previous involvement in such like offences. The accused is of young age and he must have a chance of repentance. Keeping in view the aforementioned circumstances and the clean breast admission of the guilt of the accused, his poor financial status and recovery of only 900 grams of chars by taking a lenient view, instead of sentencing him at once, he is placed on probation for a period of one (01) year subject
