Case Title: Khadi Khan etc Vs Saeed Ullah etc

Or-----13	08.03.2024	Parties present. Vide this order I intend to dispose of instant application for grant of temporary injunction filed by plaintiffs, hereinafter referred as the petitioners. Arguments already heard and record perused. Now on perusal of the record and valuable assistances of both the learned counsels for the parties, this court is of the humble view that petitioners through instant suit allege that suit property is joint ownership of parties to the suit and hence same may kindly be partitioned amongst parties to the suit as per their due legal share. Contrary to this the respondents allege that neither parties to the suit are relative inter se nor suit property is joint ownership of the parties to the suit rather is sole ownership of respondents. In given circumstances this court is of the view that both there is no revenue record in district Orakzai and thus in absence of revenue record it is not possible for this court to ascertain as to who is the real owner of the suit property and further who amongst the parties has got a prima facie case in his favour rather same would be proved after recording of pro and contra evidence at later stage. However in order to preserve the suit property during pendency of instant suit and further to avoid multiplicity and complexity of litigation at later stage, this court deed it appropriate to grant temporary injunction in favour of petitioners to the extent of further alienation. In light of above discussion, instant application for grant of temporary injunction filed by plaintiffs is hereby allowed and temporary injunction for the statutory period of 06 months or till disposal of the instant suit, whichever is
