SUIT FOR DECLARATION, PERMANENT AND MANDATORY INJUNCTION

SUMMARY JUDGEMENT:
25.08.2022

1. Brief facts of the case in hand are that the plaintiff, Muhammad Yaseen has brought the instant suit for declaration, permanent and mandatory injunction against the defendant, referred hereinabove, seeking declaration therein that correct date of birth of the plaintiff is 01.01.2002, according to Secondary School Certificate and detail Marks Certificate while it has been wrongly mentioned as 01.01.1996 in the CNIC by the defendants, which is wrong, ineffective upon the rights of the plaintiff and liable to correction. That the defendants were repeatedly asked to correct the date of birth of plaintiff but they refused, hence, the instant suit.

2. With due process of law defendants were summoned, they did not appear, therefore, placed and proceeded ex-parte. Ex-parte decree was passed against defendants but later on, representative for defendants namely Syed Farhat Abbas appeared and submitted an application for setting-aside ex-parte decree which was accepted. Representative for defendants submitted authority letter and written statement.

3. During the scheduling conference within the meaning of order IX-A of CPC, it was revealed that the matter involved in the instant case is very petty in nature, which can be decided through summary judgement as per relevant record. The representative of NADRA stated that he has no objection if the case decided summarily on the basis of available record without recording lengthy evidence, as the primary aim and objective of Amended Management Rules in CPC is, "to enable the court to-

- a. Deal with the cases justly and fairly;
- b. Encourage parties to alternate dispute resolution procedure if it considers appropriate;
- c. Save expense and time both of courts and litigants; and
- d. Enforce compliance with provisions of this Code."

4. Record reveals that plaintiff through instant suit is seeking correction of date of birth to the effect that his correct date of birth is 01.01.2002 while it has been wrongly mentioned as 01.01.1996 in the CNIC by the defendants, which is wrong, ineffective upon the rights of the plaintiff and liable to correction. Plaintiff in support of his contention produced his Secondary School Certificate and Detailed Marks Certificate, bearing Roll No. 92129, Kohat Board, wherein, date of birth of the plaintiff is 01.01.2002. The said documents clearly negate the incorporation of date of birth of the plaintiff as 01.01.1996 in his CNIC. Further, there is no countered document available with the defendants to rebut the documents produced by the plaintiff in support of his contention. So, the available record clearly establishes the claim of the plaintiff.

5. Consequently, upon what has been discussed above and the jurisdiction vested in this court under order IX-A and XV-A of CPC, suit of the plaintiff succeeds and is hereby decreed as prayed for. Defendants are directed to correct the date of birth of plaintiff as 01.01.2002 in their record and in the CNIC of the plaintiff.
6. Parties are left to bear their own costs.
7. File be consigned to the District Record Room, Orakzai after its necessary completion and compilation.
