Order 03	28.03.2024	None present for the state. SHO PS Kalaya not present. Vide this order, I intend to dispose of the instant Show Cause Notice, previously issued to SHO PS Kalaya, under section 174 PPC. Brief facts of the case are that previously this court entrusted warrant of arrest to SHO PS Kalaya for arrest and production of accused Zeeshan in criminal case FIR # 101 dated: 02.11.2023 u/s 11-A CNSA of PS Kalaya titled as "State Vs Mandoob Ali". However SHO PS Kalaya failed to execute said arrest warrant and further to produce the accused before this court. Accordingly SHO PS Kalaya was directed by this court to appear in person and submit his written explanation as to why he failed to execute arrest warrant but on the next date of hearing neither SHO PS Kalaya appeared before this court nor submitted his written explanation, hence instant show cause notice u/s 174 PPC was given to him and he was directed to submit his written reply and show cause as to why he shall not be punished u/s 174 PPC. Accordingly SHO PS Kalaya appeared before this court in person and submitted his written reply. Now on perusal of the available record, it has been noticed that in reply to instant show cause notice, SHO PS Kalaya has stated in his defense that he has raided the house of accused but he was not present at his house and thus the father of accused was directed to produce the accused before court on the date of hearing. He further allege that on the next date of hearing i.e. 11.03.2024 he was on polio duty and thus due to that very reason was not able to appear before the court. He also apologized at the bar before this court and stated that he had not disregarded the orders of this court and he cannot even think to do so but duty to emergency duty he failed to appear before this court. He further stated at the bar that in future he will be careful and will never commit such act.

In light of the above discussion, this court is of the view that the reply submitted by SHO PS Kalaya is satisfactory and furthermore, he also apologized at the bar before this court and further has assured this court that in future he will be careful. In given circumstances, this court by taking lenient view and by providing an opportunity to SHO PS Kalaya to mend his ways and bring positive changes in his conduct as well as in performance of his lawful duties, hereby file instant show cause notice without any further proceedings. File be consigned to the record room after its necessary completion and compilation.
