Order 12	14.05.2024	Parties present. Today the case in hand was fixed for case management and scheduling conference but both the parties once again sought time for the same. In given circumstances, perusal of the previous order sheets would reveal that previously after submission of written statement, the case in hand was fixed for case management and scheduling conference on 26.03.2024. Furthermore, record would further transpire that three adjournments have been granted to both the parties but despite availing sufficient time, today they seek further adjournment without any valid reason or sufficient cause. It is also pertinent to mention here that as per Order IX-A C.P.C, after issuance of agenda items of the conference on the prescribed pro-forma A,B,C & D, specified in fifth schedule, court has conduct conference within seven days of issuance of such agenda while in present case the proformas A and B were issued to the parties on 26.03.2024 and even after lapse of a period of about 20 days, parties in the instant suit failed to participate in scheduling conference. It is further necessary to mention here that as per Rule 6 of Order IX-A C.P.C. penalty is to be imposed on the party who fails to participate in the conference or fails to obey case management and scheduling order. In present case as both the parties willfully failed to obey the case management and scheduling order even after availing reasonable time and sufficient opportunities, hence accordingly suit in hand is hereby dismissed while a cost of Rs-10000/- is imposed upon the defendants under Rule 6 of Order IX-A C.P.C.
