Order 15	27.07.2024	Parties present. Vide this order I intend to dispose of instant application for grant of temporary injunction filed by plaintiff, hereinafter referred as the petitioner. Arguments already heard and record perused. Now on perusal of the record and valuable assistances of both the learned counsels for the parties, this court is of the humble view that petitioner through instant suit allege that he is permanent resident of District Orakzai and being landlord of the locality, own a large area of land. He further allege that suit property is also his exclusive ownership and possession of suit property was previously handed over to respondents for the purpose of cultivation and thus respondents are tenants of petitioner. He further allege that respondents belong to district Khyber and thus they have no personal property in District Orakzai. Contrary to this respondents allege that they are residing in District Orakzai since the time of their forefathers and are owners in possession of the suit property. They further deny the Jirgas previously held between parties to the suit and claim their exclusive ownership over the suit property. In given circumstances, this court is of the humble view that the respective stance alleged by both the parties to the suit is subject to proof after recording of pro and contra evidence and furthermore, in absence of revenue record in district Orakzai, at this stage it is not possible for this court to ascertain that as who amongst the parties to the suit is real owner of the suit property. However, perusal of the documents annexed with the plaint by petitioner support the stance of petitioner at this stage, irrespective of the fact that
