Order...04

03.09.2024

DPP for state and both the sureties in persons present and stated at the bar that they have deposited the penalty amount on the very day of passing of order and in that respect submitted the copies of receipts. The reader of the court also inquired, who stated that sureties have deposited the fine of Rs. 50,000/- each against proper receipts, which has already been deposited in government exchequer under head account no. C 02604 of National Bank of Pakistan, City Branch, Hangu on 22.07.2024 vide receipt no. 10. Copy of receipt is placed on file, thus, it is concluded that the fine amount levied on Shahid Khan and Kashmaloo Khan, sureties of accused Sajid Ali, has been paid by them and deposited in government exchequer; therefore, there is no need of further proceedings in the instant case, which be filed.

Case file consigned to record room after its necessary completion and compilation.
